Confederate Veteran Dies

Richmond, Va.- (By VPA) General William McKendree Evans, who joined the Confederate forces in the War Between the States as the age of 14, and later became Commander of the Virginia Division of the United Confederate Veterans, and who was the last living man to see the historic final meeting between Lee and Jackson, died October 23 at his home in Richmond, He was 91 years old. General Evans was the Commander of the Army of Northern Virginia Department of the U. C. V. and Commander of the Virginia Division of the U. C. V. at his death, having served in the former capacity for three terms and the latter for two.

General Evans was also Commander of the R. E. Lee Camp in Richmond and was one of Virginia's best known veterans of the war.

Commissioned a second lieutenant when his height at 14 allowed him to pass for 16, he resigned because of the inactive nature of his duty and joined Parker's Battery as a private. He subsequently was wounded seven times and served two months in prison at Camp Lookout, Md., after he was captured by General Custer three days before Lee surrendered at Appomattox.

To Store Fair Exhibit

The Virginia World's Fair Commission has left on opening for the state to continue its exhibit at the New York Exposition next year by making arrangements for the exhibit to be stored at the fairgrounds until February 1. The Commission made no recommendation as to 1940, and ordered the display closed and dismantled October 31, but decided to leave the materials in New York so that if the General Assembly, which convenes in January, sees fit to make a new appropriation or otherwise provide for participaing next year. The Commission has about $6,000 remaining of its authorized expenditures of $65,000.

KEEP YOUR RED CROSS READY

This striking painting of a Red Cross nurse keeping the symbol of mercy flag is the keynote of the 1939 appeal membership in the American Red ss. Faced with the need for ntributing daily Red Cross services 3,700 Chapters, and with its (ar- ed obligation to aid in some measu in meeting the distress of the men, men and children refugees in war- n countries across the sea, the Red oss asks every man and woman in the nation, able to do so, to join as a member this year and support America's official voluntary relief agency.

Erskin Williams, a distinguished artist, is creator of this ideal conception of the nurse heroine.

The roll call for members will be held November 11 to 30—join through your local Chapter. Help your Red Cross help others by becoming one of the millions who will add their names to the roll of mercy.

"Build-Up": Way to Ease Women's Pain

Many weak, run-down women are in a vicious circle. Their undernourishment often leads to what is called functional dysmenorrhea and its symptoms—headaches, nervousness, irritability, intermittent cramp-like pains—from which many women suffer. Surest way to break the vicious circle is by building strength and energy, which so many find may be done with the help of CARDUI. It stimulates appetite, aids digestion, and thus helps in this "build-up" of physical resistance. Women also report that, if taken just before and during "the time," CARDUI helps to ease the pain and discomfort of the period.

...promotes prosperity in the communities the railroad serves

YOU WILL FIND these dollars in your pocket, whether you are a manufacturer, a merchant, a farmer, a butcher, or a baker. For N. & W. dollars are community dollars.

To its thousands of employees in six states, the Norfolk and Western pays approximately $32,000,000 annually in wages and salaries. These railroad workers spend their earnings in their home towns—your communities—for food, rent, clothing, automobiles, radios, and other necessities and luxuries of life. They deposit their savings in local banks; invest in local real estate; contribute to local charities; pay local taxe

And the Norfolk and Western itself, is a big customer in the hundreds of communities along its lines. This railroad spends an average of $18,000,000 a year on a shopping list of 50,000 different items, from pencils to freight cars, from steak to steel rails, from lumber to stationery, from coal to crossties, from toothpicks to paint, from advertising to apples, and so on and so on.

Day in and day out, year after year, these millions of railroad dollars are pouring steadily into rural sections, towns and cities along the railroad—promoting prosperity, creating jobs in industry, business and agriculture. Indeed, N. & W. purchases and payrolls are no mere "shot in the arm" to briefly quicken the economic pulse, but a sound, vital investment in the welfare and progress of the territory the railroad traverses.

The Norfolk and Western Railway and the Norfolk and Western Family are proud to have such an important part in promoting prosperity in communities along their lines. The railroad and its employees are worthy of your support and consideration; their tremendous purchasing power is worthy of preservation.
